"THE TITANIC MEMORIAL"
Washington, D.C.

Located on Water Street in Washington, D.C. is this memorial to the men who gave their lives in the Titanic disaster so that the women could be saved. The statue was carved by John Horrigan, commissioned by Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney.

Photo by E. David Luria

Distributed by B. Prince Co., Springfield, Virginia
MADE IN USA by DYNACOLOR GRAPHICS INC.

6-5-00

Mr. Weisberg, I must condemn the new JFK book by John Canal (pseudonym???) from Paragon Press. It is full of CIA disinformation & FBI misinformation. Period. (2000 Paragon). Cites no conspiracy at all. No word on Zapruder or Schwarz.

Joseph Scovitch
4815 Calvert Rd. # 355
College Park, MD 207

To: Mr. H. Weisberg
7627 Old Receiver Rd.
Frederick, Md.
21701

Please do not write below this line

USA